Total stock subscriptions, $792,000.

Amount of bonds subscribed for by Oakland banks, $750,000.

Gross total pledged for erecting the hotel, $1,542,000.

Over $400,000 has been paid in on the subscribed capital stock. The remainder—less than $350,000—can be called for as building operations proceed. A splendid site has been purchased, excavated and foundation laid, and over $90,000 cash remains in the treasury of the hotel company.

Walter J. Mathews, the consulting architect, says that if contracts are let now the hotel can be built for $150,000 less than it would have cost two years ago, owing to the reduction in the cost of material, the wages of labor and various incidentals.

BRINGS SUIT FOR RECOVERY OF FURNITURE

George H. Fuller Takes Action Against Mutual Underwriters and Mutual Life.

George H. Fuller this morning entered suit in the Superior Court against the Mutual Underwriters, the Preferred Mutual Life of California, and J. G. Thompson, who is in charge of the offices of the two corporations for the recovery of certain personal property now held to be held in the offices of the companies in the First National Bank building, which he describes as follows: Five directors' chairs, $100; one extra director's chair, $25.50; twelve oak arm chairs, $125; four revolving office chairs, $50; one roll-top desk, $150; one typewriter desk, $100; two additional roll-top desks, $225; 15 "X" agents' desks, $238.50; five chairs for same, $93.75; and one additional chair, $12.75.

Fuller claims that all of the aforesaid property is his and asks for an order of the court, either compelling a return to him of the property or $388.50, its reputed value. He asks further for damages to the extent of $100 for the unlawful detention of the property.

fact that the blood stains were found just below the spot where the dead woman's head had been. This, taken in connection with the fact that a piece of rusty gas pipe bent into an L shape was found near the grave on the morning of the discovery of the body, leads the officials to the opinion that Mrs. Donohue may have been laid to the spot, struck a cruel blow on the head and then dumped into the grave which may have been prepared in advance of the crime. There was a piece of human hair found on the gas pipe which tends to strengthen this theory.

Deputy Marshal Lippl told Captain Peterson this morning that it was the habit of Ahlstedt, alias Arkell, to use cigars for chewing tobacco. He would take off a piece of a cigar and after chewing it awhile, would spit it out and take a new bite. This bit of chewing tobacco which was found in the bottom of the grave gives the appearance of having been spit out. The police are considering the possibility of a strong link in the chain of evidence which was gathered against the suspect up to the time he was turned over to the San Francisco officials for trial on the charge of burglary. Every phase of the new evidence will be carefully investigated and a statement of the case will be turned over to Chemist Benzinger for examination.

LETTERS RECEIVED.

The police are in daily receipt of letters and telegrams from the relatives of both Donohue, the suicide, and the murdered woman, who lived with him as his wife. This morning Chief of Police Wilson received a telegram from J. K. Stewart of Birmingham, Pennsylvania, which read as follows: "If you think it advisable will come out."

J. K. Stewart is a brother of the dead woman and in a letter which he wrote some days ago in response to a letter sent to him by the police telling of the crime, he refers to his sister as Alice Donohue, having been of the opinion that she was married to the conductor. The following letter reached Mayor Mott this morning from Dr. Warren Stewart, another brother of the dead woman, who seeks information concerning her estate: "Birmingham, Pa., Sept. 4th.

"The Mayor, Oakland, California.

"Dear Sir: On the 11th of June I was notified that my sister, Mrs. D. Donohue was missing and no trace of her was found. But on the 20th of August I received a telegram from Dr. J. K. Stewart that my sister, his wife, was found and that she was married and at that date, September 4th, I had word Dr. D. Donohue had committed suicide. I am sorry to say she was my only sister, so you see I am interested in the distant tragedy. I would be glad to hear of any property or personal property. Would you please give me some information about the affair, or inform me who would be the proper person to get the desired information. Wishing to thank you for anything you can do for me I desire to remain.

"Yours very respectfully,
"J. K. STEWART,
"Birmingham, Penna., Huntington county."

Flight. He had trouble, however, with the sparking apparatus of his motor and was forced to come down after being four minutes and forty-two seconds in the air.

CONQUEST OF AIR.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—Expert writers on aviation today devote columns in the newspapers to the importance of Orville Wright's flying feats at Fort Myer, and liken the effect produced throughout the world by this masterful demonstration to the circling of the Eiffel Tower by Santos Dumont in 1900. With practical unanimity they hail the Fort Myer performance as marking the definite conquest of the air by man. A majority of the writers think it is now a question of but a short time before the Wrights or some other aviator will win the London Daily Mail's prize of $50,000 for a flight from London to Manchester and M. Michelin's prize of $20,000 for a flight from Paris to the dome of the cathedral at Clermont-Ferrand. The latter competition is open until 1918.

TO TRY BALDWIN AIRSHIP.
ST. JOSEPH, Sept. 11.—Capt. Baldwin's dirigible, which arrived here today from Washington by express, will be tried for United States army authorities during the military tournament, in which 5,000 federal troops will participate during the week of September 21.

WATCHMAN STONES A BOY AND SERIOUSLY HURTS HIM

Warrant Has Been Issued for the Man

(Special to The Tribune.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11.—Mar Gil Williamson, a 32-year-old grand jury employee by McDonnell's pharmacy and residing at 1125 Howard street, was severely injured at 10:30 this morning by being struck on the head with a brick which he claimed was held by a watchman who had previously assaulted him with a shower of stones.

The boy was on his way to deliver a package on the water front and was making a short cut through the vacant lot at Mission and Main streets when he felt a rock whizz past his ear and looking around saw a man in the act of throwing a second missile at him. The man then fled.

It is that his assailant told him he was a watchman and he must get out of the way, and he accordingly ran as fast as he could with the watchman in hot pursuit. The watchman then threw a brick at the boy, and a passing teamster conveyed the injured lad to the Tubor Emergency Hospital, where a deep laceration of the scalp was dressed by Dr. Hill.

A warrant was later sworn out before Police Judge Weiler, charging the watchman with assault with a deadly weapon.

ALLEGED EMBEZZLERS OF BONDS PLEAD NOT GUILTY

(Special to The Tribune.)

SAN FRANCISCO, September 11.—John Lynch and C. E. Rankin, the two brokers of this city who are charged on two counts with embezzlement and grand larceny of the bonds of the Pacific Coast Railway, pleaded not guilty to the charges against them in Judge Cook's court this morning and will be brought to trial on September 21.

Both defendants are still in custody and were forced to make the trip in the county jail along with the other prisoners in the "Black Maria." They were represented by Attorneys T. C. West and W. T. Hume. They demanded separate trials and interposed a demurrer to the indictment, based on the grounds that they could not be jointly charged with the two crimes of embezzlement and grand larceny. The demurrer was overruled.

As soon as the plea of not guilty had been taken, the defendants' attorneys requested a reduction of the bail which had been fixed at $15,000 or $30,000 bonds. Attorney Hiram Johnson, who appears as special prosecutor, representing the Ocean Shore Railway, objected to any reduction, and the court upheld his view.

In making his appeal for less bail, Attorney West held that there was little or no evidence against the defendants. Attorney Hiram Johnson, however, stated that the evidence was conclusive as would be demonstrated on the day of the trial.

San Francisco, Sept. 11.—Two large lumber yards were burned, a loss of a quarter of a million dollars was caused and the south end of the south of Market street district was in danger for two hours through a fire which started at Fifth and Brannan streets shortly after 4 o'clock last evening.

The fire started in one of the planning mills of Edward F. Nichols & Co., 555-557 Brannan street, wiped out a nearly stock of hard wood and destroyed two kilns and mills and spread to the north lumber yard of the Van Arsdale-Harris lumber company at the northeast corner of Brannan and Fifth streets, where it left little. The two other yards of this company escaped, as did their offices and barns.

Fathers Nugent and McMahon of St. Rose's Catholic Church, assisted by faithful parishioners, saved the little church.

Tracy named for Congress in Fifth.

Labor Leader Nominated By Democrats Over the Opposition of Theodore A. Bell.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11.—George A. Tracy, nominee of the Independence party for Congress in the Fifth district, received the Democratic endorsement yesterday at the hands of the district convention of that party.

Three other candidates had their names presented to the convention, former Congressman James C. Maguire, R. R. Dingess and A. M. Robertson. Two ballots were taken. On the first Tracy received thirty-three votes, two short of enough to nominate. On the second he pulled thirty-seven and without further ado was declared the candidate of the Democrats, as he had been previously chosen the nominee of the Independence party.

The feature of the convention was, as anticipated, a determined effort on the part of Theodore Bell and his followers to prevent the endorsement by the Democrats of a man who, although a recognized member of that party and president of the State Federation of Labor, had been elected beyond redemption in the eyes of the Bell people in having already accepted nomination at the hands of the Independence party.

Every Effort Was Made By the Crew of a Schooner To Rescue Him.

(Special to The Tribune.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11.—Mar Gil, a Chinese fisherman, employed by the S. C. Company of Western street, Oakland, was drowned in the waters of the bay at 9 o'clock this morning, after he had fallen overboard from the bark Jennie and an unsuccessful attempt had been made to rescue him by Antonio Melizos.

The Chinese was assisting in arranging some tackle on board the boat when he slipped to the deck and fell over the side. He floundered for a moment in the water and Melizos, who was on the Stewart street dock, threw off his coat and jumped in to rescue him. With great difficulty he reached the side of the drowning man and swam desperately to the pier, where a rope was thrown and both were hoisted to the dock.

Several water front characters then told all they could to revive the Chinese, but without avail.

FROM SAN JOSE TIMES, SEPT. 11 THE LATEST OAKLAND FARCE

Oakland is again contributing to the gallery of the nation. That city has long been a birth place of farce. The present instance appears to be no exception. The grand hotel she is building has terminated in a comedy. The grand hotel she is building has terminated in a comedy. The grand hotel she is building has terminated in a comedy.

When it was announced two years ago that a magnificent hotel to rival the Palomar and St. Francis was going to be built in Oakland—right in the heart of the city—people here and in other California cities began to take notice. The land is now up, and the hotel is on its way to the top of the hill.

When it was announced that the grand hotel was to be built by the bankers of that city, people here and in other California cities began to take notice. The land is now up, and the hotel is on its way to the top of the hill.

postholes, or use it for a hot air tank. We suggest that it be turned into a public bath for cold feet.

They agreed at the start to buy $750,000 bonds on the grand, splendid, magnificent new hotel, but the whole bunch of them are appalled that their promise should have been taken seriously. They don't want to buy the bonds. They don't want any hotel. They don't want to hear the subject mentioned. A two-bit restaurant is good enough for Oakland; if the stranger wants to stop at a real hotel he can go over to San Francisco. That is the way they feel about it. Oakland is a city of homes, schools, and churches, but no business, and a genuine hotel such as they have in Los Angeles, or San Jose, or San Diego, or Santa Barbara, would be as much out of place there as a live banker would be. It's a wonder they don't object to the street cars because of the noise they make.

One bank in San Jose bid for over $500,000 of the bonds San Francisco offered for sale the other day, but all the banks of Oakland put together are afraid of the idea of buying $750,000 worth of bonds in an Oakland enterprise. Such extravagant notions fill them with apprehension. They are convinced the people of Oakland are going mad with excitement, are too reckless and shortsighted not to know that a race will grow in the principal streets in a few years. Visions of this wild sort must be stopped at all hazards. So the flat has gone forth that the big hotel is to be converted into an alms house and quietly launched into space, while the town turns over for another nap.

But if Oakland has lost her grand hotel she remains true to her traditions. It is her ambition to be a quiet place, a good town to sleep in, and she doesn't want to be pestered with the high life and gay folks who frequent good hotels. In the good old days before the fire a laugh was always raised at the San Francisco vaudeville by poking fun at poor old Oakland. The jests of that ancient day will now have added piquancy. Shouts of ridicule will greet the bare mention of Oakland's grand hotel. Every end man that comes to the coast will have a target for his wit in our neighbor at the eastern end of the ferry. The Bankers' Hotel of Oakland will now supersede the mother-in-law joke as a theme for gibe and jest. Whenever an Oakland man shows up in another town he can be chased away by a reference to the vast hot air caravaning the Oakland bankers did not build on the shores of Lake Merritt.

For a brief time Oakland dreamed she was a city. Vain, fleeting vision of an hour! She is only a brawly, squally village, interested mainly by Pardee's whiskies, and two-penny financiers. Come to San Jose if you want to see a live town and stop at a real hotel. Beware of Oakland unless you are drowsy and long for the quiet life.

The San Jose Times is mistaken. The Bankers' Hotel is going to be built. Oakland is not the back-number class, and will not permit herself to be made the butt of the cheap jeers of cheap actors and cheap editors. She is going ahead faster than any city in the State, and proposes to keep up her lick.

Nor are the bankers of Oakland of the sort the San Jose paper sneeringly describes. They are not small nor mean; neither do they lack faith in their city or public spirit and enterprise. Having organized the new hotel project they will put it through. The San Jose Times is premature in lauding Oakland and her financiers. It should withhold its sneers and gibes for a space, and it will find that its satire is being wasted on the wrong place and the wrong people.

If the editor of the Times will keep his eye on Oakland he will soon see the new hotel going up and the city generally growing like weeds in the spring. Oakland is all right. So are her bankers; and so is the new hotel project.—Editor TRIBUNE.

Americans Make Profits

The people of Europe are hard working, industrious and thrifty people, yet

They are not to be compared to Americans in wealth.

Americans, too, are hard working and industrious, but certainly not so thrifty as Europeans, yet

Our wealth is tenfold.

What is the reason?

Supply Americans are speculators to an extent that no other people are.

Americans are not satisfied to hoard up a few pennies and accumulate the miserly money—this method of saving alone enables them.

Americans use their money to make money—they speculate. We have devised a plan of speculation—an absolutely new plan—which guarantees perfect safety and absolute profit.

Our plan of speculation furnishes immediate possession of land as security.

Our plan of speculation guarantees a profit annually from 20 to 300 per cent.

Our plan of speculation you must remember is absolutely new—it is not the old cut-and-dried method of real estate investment—it is far better than that—it beats any method ever devised.

Providing you have a large capital, you can readily find a profitable way of investing same.

But have you a large capital?

Being a busy wage-earner, presumably you have only the surplus over and above what actually costs to live.

This surplus, if you are frugal and careful, will, without investment, probably enable you to retire after your best years are gone.

This surplus, if you are frugal and have the ability to discern an opportunity to invest where the chance of making profit is certain, will enable you to retire before your best years are gone.

We have devised a system which guarantees participants an absolutely no loss—which you can readily appreciate were it not true we could not afford to advertise, as it requires a lie only a short time to find its way home while to investigate?

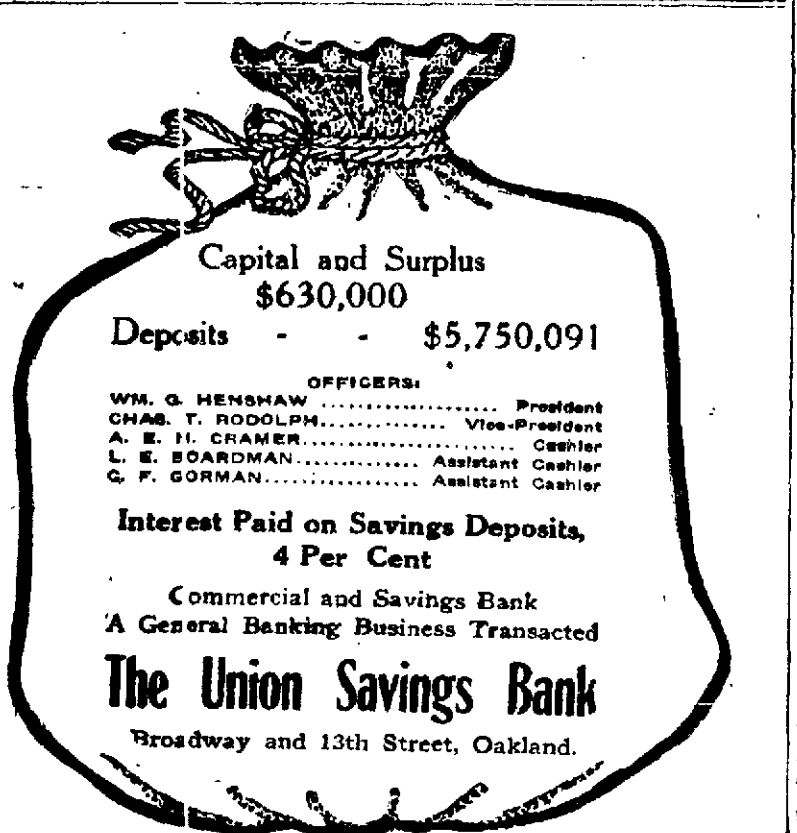

Don't you think a man is foolish to lay aside what might be facts—without investigation—costs him nothing—profit might result?

Our advice is to investigate—we are prepared to furnish all information required, our time is yours for the asking.

We are prepared to prove each and every word we advertise.

DIRECTORS OAKLAND HOTEL COMPANY—Gentlemen: The undersigned citizens and business men of Oakland do hereby urge respectfully but most earnestly that you proceed with reasonable dispatch to erect the new hotel projected nearly two years ago. Practical wisdom and public spirit are united in favor of this enterprise, which is vitally important to the city's welfare.

None of the arguments originally advanced when the hotel company was organized has lost force; indeed, the necessity for a commodious, high-class hotel of the modern type is greater today than ever before. Moreover, the hotel must be completed if Oakland is to hold her good name and place among the progressive cities of the country. After advertising the project so extensively, the city's credit and standing will be much impaired if the enterprise is not successfully carried out.

We respectfully urge upon you, gentlemen, to show your faith in the city, your regard for the good name of Oakland, and your public spirit by proceeding with the work inaugurated with so much enthusiasm and such high hopes. You have the good wishes of the people of Oakland behind you. Their co-operation is assured. Go ahead, we beg of you, and failure cannot result.

How Many Other Cities Have Won Out

John H. Pierce, of J. H. Pierce & Co., real estate and insurance, in support of his contention that the Bankers' Hotel should be built without delay, recites his knowledge of conditions that have obtained in the building of other cities:

"Build the Bankers' Hotel," he writes, "for concede that the men who made Chicago in spite of the superior advantages of Michigan City, never can be duplicated."

"Build the hotel and go on, as Omaha did, leaving Council Bluffs to be in a way station, in spite of Lincoln's proclamation and a subsequent Supreme Court decision fixing the Union Pacific railway terminus on the Iowa side, where five Iowa roads pooled to down Omaha and make a great town of Council Bluffs."

"If Oakland and her big hotel are impracticable, then the village of Saint Anthony's Falls still exists and the metropolis of Minnesota is still St. Paul and not Minneapolis, the giant of the Northwest."

"Hurrah for the hotel and the harbor. Oakland must and shall be the greatest port of the Pacific. A dozen men, nay, one man like 'Long John' Vinton, of Chicago, can say 'I will' and the future will make those words good and the world will recognize the supreme advantage we have and hold."

Hotel Would Benefit the Entire City

Bankers' Hotel Promotion Committee, Oakland, Cal. Gentlemen:—I have affixed my name to the enclosed card, as requested. Upon the subject now being considered by the citizens of this city permit me to say that while the enterprising business men of Oakland is of the opinion that he and after him his sons, must make his dollars in the city across the bay, Oakland will not become the commercial city that it ought to be in the near future and all that is necessary to bring about a change of the present conditions is for some good enterprising capitalist of Oakland to take the lead. Some one who has full confidence in the commercial possibilities of this city, and is willing to sacrifice present interests to future gains.

I do not believe that there is a good citizen of Alameda county who does not wish to see the Bankers' Hotel built at once. It is not a question of the advancing of values in the immediate surroundings. Its erection benefits the whole city.

Yours truly,
F. L. DE FREITAS.

FAILURE TO BUILD HOTEL WOULD BE GRAVE MISTAKE

Prominent Railroad Man Writes That Plans Should Be Carried Out.

The following letter has been received from W. D. Sanborn, general agent in San Francisco of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company:

San Francisco, Sept. 8, 1908.

Editor Oakland TRIBUNE

Dear Sir—Your valued favor of the 3d I find on my return to the city. Replying to your question in regard to the completion of the Bankers' hotel.

Oakland, occupying one of the most unique locations in California, with its natural harbor and with climate as fine as the State produces, beautiful valleys and foothills, has been asleep for years. The San Francisco fire seemed to have awakened Oakland and they had a boom. Your financial men projected the Bankers' hotel and advertised it to the world, published in the newspapers descriptions thereof. They bought the land and dug a hole—same has lain idle for two years.

When you stop to think of it, San Jose, Monterey, Santa Barbara, Pasadena, Redlands, Riverside and San Diego, inferior towns compared to Oakland, have greater hotel facilities for taking care of eastern tourists than Oakland. Take Los Angeles, a city comparatively the same as Oakland, but not with the rich surroundings that Oakland has, has twenty to one as good hotels as Oakland; furthermore, the people in the South have stood together and advertised not only their climate, but hotel accommodations, etc., and have scattered advertisements throughout the West and the eastern people have begun to think that the only place in California is Los Angeles, while we know that north of Tehachapi is the best part of the State.

I therefore, think that your financial men will make a serious mistake if they do not carry out the completion of that hotel and advertise it to the world and especially let the eastern people know of the attractiveness of Oakland and its environs, in other words, "it pays to advertise."

Respectfully,
W. D. SANBORN

Abe P. Leach
A. P. LEACH, Attorney-at-law, Union Savings Bank Building.—The people of Oakland are unanimously in favor of the immediate construction of the hotel. Seldom it is that the residents of Oakland are so unanimous on any public project. The hotel is vital. It means that we will have passed from the old era to the new in reality. Failure to construct the hotel will be a serious injury from which we will never fully recover. It would retard the expansion of the city and prevent the introduction of other large enterprises. It is not the benefits and profits that the stockholders would receive alone that count—the indirect benefits in the way of added confidence, and the encouragement for others would far outweigh anything else. If we admit we cannot support such a hotel we admit that there would not be support here for any other, large enterprise.

Don Morris
DON MORRIS, Clothier, 1662 Washington street—I have just returned from an extended Eastern trip and can state that the hotels in a number of cities which otherwise would be little known made the name of the places famous and attracted the traveler. Personally I made special trips to cities which were out of my course merely to see the equipment and appointments of this or that hotel which had been recommended to me by some fellow traveler. Such notable hotels as the

CITY DEMANDS GREATEST HOTEL IN ALL THE WEST

Stockholders Must Urge Its Erection, Declares D. F. Oliver

D. F. Oliver, when seen by a Tribune reporter, said:

You ask why should the Bankers' hotel be built. I will ask why is it necessary to ask such a question? It is very much easier to answer your question than to find an answer to the latter. There are a hundred reasons why this hotel should be built and no single valid reason for not building it. To even suggest the possibility of not going forward with this important improvement seems to me little less than a travesty to city.

While every person has a right to his or her honest opinion, yet the person who will at this time, for mercenary reasons, advocate the abandonment of this enterprise is nothing short of a traitor to this city's best interest.

I feel that the time has now arrived for this matter to be fully and finally settled. If we are to fail, let us decide it quickly and let the dismal negro forth to the world, to the disgrace of our city and to the disgrace of the citizens.

I note that many are inclined to put the odium of this delay or failure on the bankers; now as I understand it, they are ready and willing to go forward just as soon as the stockholders desire them to move further in this important matter. If this be true, it is up to the stockholders to give the order and at the same time make their subscriptions, when the work will proceed to a rapid completion.

BE ON HAND
Therefore it seems to me that every stockholder in this hotel company should be on hand at the meeting called for the 22d inst. and to ere aware that first-class hotel accommodations can be had there is no power on earth to keep the tourists away.

James. L. McCarthy
JAMES L. MCCARTHY, Underwriter—Oakland should get in at the present time and show the world that we erect the "Bankers' hotel on the coast" the shortest period. Delay always gets mistrust. No one improves in the building line would help Oakland as much as the erection of the Bankers' Hotel. To let it drop would be to let an opportunity slip which can never be fully recovered. Time is one of the essences of construction. Time means money. Four years hence would mean the loss of four years of valuable time.

O. I. Denison
O. I. DENISON, Real Estate, 473 Tenth street—When I was somewhat active in the real estate business I frequently found parties to buy or rent at the large hotels in San Francisco and was often told by people of wealth that when on the coast they would stop at the Bankers' Hotel on account of the climate if we had hotel accommodations that were satisfactory; that they were able and willing to pay for hotels, which we did not have. There is nothing like a first-class hotel to advertise a city and the Bankers' Hotel should be hastened to completion with as little delay as possible.

Yours truly,
D. FRANKLIN OLIVER.

TRIBUNE is doing the city a real service in keeping the project alive.

WILL FIGHT THE 'ANTI-FRAT' RULE

Secret Societies Plan to Organize to Fight School Board Rule.

CHICAGO, Sept. 11.—Plans for organized resistance to the enforcement of the Chicago school board's "anti-frat" rule were perfected quietly yesterday at the Hyde Park, Wendell Phillips, and other high schools. The open defiance on the part of the members of the various fraternities and secret societies will be expressed Saturday at a joint meeting when arrangements will be made to apply for a writ to prevent the board from enforcing its rule, which calls for the suspension of every member of a secret society. About 200 members of various high school fraternities and secret societies are expected to attend the meeting. These plans were made without the knowledge of the school authorities.

POLICE CAN HALT AND QUIZ PERSONS

District Court of Appeals Declares Peace Officers Have Right to Find Out Facts.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 11.—In a decision handed down by the Second District Court of Appeals yesterday, it is declared that police officers have a right to stop pedestrians at night, question them about their business, and, if necessary, take them to the police station for identification. "If it be the law that a police officer, acting upon reasonable grounds in making arrest, is liable, should the arrest be subsequently unwarranted, it were idle to maintain a police force in a large city," states one of the judges. The case was that of W. E. Iske, who brought suit against Patrolman Sanders for false imprisonment. The plaintiff secured a verdict of $500 in the Superior Court, but the higher tribunal reverses this judgment and remands the case for a new trial. The plaintiff may carry his case to the Supreme Court.

PORTLAND HARBOR IS LIKELY TO BE IMPROVED

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 11.—The port of Portland commission has under consideration a plan for the improving of the city's waterway, which, if carried out, will give Portland one of the best harbors in America. The plan contemplates the building of a causeway from the upper end of Swan Island in the northern part of the city to the east bank of the Willamette river and the dredging of a basin for the accommodation of ships. This basin is planned to be 150 feet wide and over two miles long. The estimated cost runs into the millions of dollars.

MANIAC KILLS INSANE PATIENT WITH CUP

PUEBLO, Colo., Sept. 11.—Charles Mow, a patient at the State Insane Asylum yesterday, hurled a teacup at John Garvey, another patient, striking him over the right temple, killing him instantly. The affair occurred in the dining room while the patients were being seated for dinner. An inquest was held and it was decided that Garvey's death was the result of an accident.

DENIES CHARGE HE IS NOT PRIEST

Three Arrested "Sisters" Must Face Charge of Disorderly Conduct.

CHICAGO, Sept. 11.—Antimo Lubiez accused of obtaining money on a false pretense of being a Catholic priest surrendered himself to the police yesterday. He denied the charge and said he was a delusory stories circulated about him originated with Mrs. Mary Pilgr formerly employed by him at his orphanage, 203 Twenty-sixth street, which is known as St. Joseph's Orphan Home. "INDEPENDENT" PRIEST "I am a regularly ordained Catholic priest," he said. "The orphan home is legally incorporated. I solicited alms, but I had a right to. I am an independent Catholic priest." The Independent Catholic movement started in France in 1907. It was represented in America by the Rev. Joseph R. Hime, who, while the Catholic Archbishop of America, Lubiez had in his possession a brief dated January 3, 1905 and signed by Archbishop Villatte, who authorized him to build churches and solicit funds for charity. The three "sisters" who were employed by the priest to collect alms for the orphanage will be arraigned tomorrow on charges of disorderly conduct. They will be questioned, also, concerning the reports of immorality at the orphanage.

SALMON CANNERIES DESTROYED BY FIRE

THE DALLES, Ore., Sept. 11.—The salmon canneries and ice plant of H. H. Tette, at Celilo, were totally destroyed yesterday by fire. The fire is believed to have caught from the sparks of a passing train. The loss is probably over $50,000 and uninsured.

CURE THE CAUSE

How to Remedy Much of the Suffering in Oakland.

Half of the sickness and suffering in Oakland comes from a weak stomach. Cure the cause by using Mico-na Stomach Tablets and be well and happy. Even the most chronic cases yield to Mico-na. W. C. Wornell connected with the Lake Shore Railroad for years saves "For fifteen years I had acute stomach trouble and nothing helped me. A friend recommended Mico-na and two boxes entirely cured me." Cure the cause of your suffering and be well and happy. If the stomach is weak and you have indigestion, flatulence, dizziness, headache, etc., get a 50-cent box of Mico-na from leading druggists. It is the absolute guarantee to cure the money unless Mico-na cures.

BOAT IS NEARLY UPSET BY SHARK

Blows With Oar All That Saves Life of W. F. Boyens While Fishing at Monterey.

W. F. BOYENS, —Stewart, Photo

While N. F. Boyens was out in a boat fishing for rockcod at Monterey bay a huge shark hit the small boat a heavy blow, almost upsetting it. For a moment it seemed as though it would be impossible to keep from falling into the water. The boat righted itself, however, but the shark continued to follow Boyens at so close a range that he took his oar and with all his strength struck the pursuer over the head until he splintered his oar.

ILL HEALTH CAUSES BISHOP TO RESIGN

PEORIA, Ill., Sept. 11.—The resignation of the Right Rev. J. M. Lankford, Spalding Bishop of the diocese of Peoria, because of continued ill health was a notifiable announcement from his residence yesterday. The bishop is now in his sixtieth year and still suffers from the paralysis which brought him near to death.

BOUGHT TO TEACH CHILDREN DUTIES OF MARRIED LIFE, SAYS UNIVERSITY PROFESSOR

TOPEKA, Kan., Sept. 11.—"The time is coming when a course preparatory to matrimony will be offered in our public schools in which young men and women will be taught some important matters relative to marriage." Professor F. H. Blackmar, head of the department of sociology in the University of Kansas, made this statement here last night in an address. Professor Blackmar believes such a course would go far toward improving Americans as a nation and he believes it is the most expedient remedy for unhappy marriages. Professor Blackmar advocated a strict physical and mental examination of all applicants for marriage licenses. Persons afflicted with pulmonary or mental diseases should not be allowed to marry, he said. Careful selection is believed by the professor to be the best method of preventing the increase in insanity, epilepsy and crime.

B. P. DOZIER APPOINTED HEAD OF NAPA BOARD

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 11.—E. Z. Hennessy, for the last eight years president of the board of managers of the Napa State Asylum, was yesterday supplanted by Attorney B. P. Dozier of San Francisco. Hennessy's term expired last July, but it was thought at the time that he would be allowed to serve another four years. Recently, however, there has been considerable trouble in the institution and the appointment of Dozier will not occasion surprise with those who have kept track of affairs.

FINGER PRINT FAILS TO SATISFY JUDGE

Court Declares Identification Method Not Sufficient for Him.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—The finger print method of identification by which the police have been cataloging their women prisoners lately, failed to satisfy Magistrate Corrigan in the Night Court last night. A woman who gave her name as May Curtis was arrested as a disorderly person. Detective Watson declared that she was the same woman who had been twice arrested last June under the name of Maud Allen and Rose Allen. He showed a record of finger prints. Magistrate Corrigan quipped at the papers under the magnifying glass. "They look alike," he said, "but they have points of difference also, to my mind. These things are not conclusive enough for me. I will give her the benefit of the doubt and place her on probation."

"A my lad," said the stranger, with an encouraging smile. "I can tell you were out out for something big." "That may be, mister," replied the diminutive farmer boy; but it generally happens that something big is out out for me." "If you?" "Yes, dad a trousers. These are a pair I have on now."

Bryan Prospers Financially On Political Reverses.

Perhaps no man of national eminence in later years, and certainly no President, was the subject of so much criticism as the late Grover Cleveland. Not only his political motives were assailed, but his integrity was impugned, and his domestic affairs were the subject of the coarsest reflection. Yet in all his public career he uttered no word in self-defense, nor permitted others to do so. When he died it was disclosed that he was not a rich man, as he left but a moderate competence to his family, and thus was disproved one class of charges lodged against him as a public man. He had the dignity to consider it beneath any honest man to offer proof of his honesty, and possibly in the minds of some men he remained under a cloud because of his sturdy refusal to take notice of his detractors.

We have in the present candidate of the late Grover Cleveland's party a man of altogether different mold. It has been stated that he is rich, having become so since he began to run for the presidency. It is not seen why such a statement should be a red rag, causing Mr. Bryan to snort, lower his head and charge his enemies. Except by demagogues it is not held to be a crime, nor even an offense, to be rich. But Mr. Bryan considered his honor to have been assailed when Speaker Cannon stated that the Democratic candidate's wealth amounted to a million dollars. Bryan denies this vehemently, and to show that it is a fabrication attacks Cannon as a "favorite of predatory corporations" and a "strangler of legislation." Then he goes into details, and shows that he is worth but $150,000, which he accumulated in lecturing and writing things. This makes Cannon's error one of degree. Bryan is worth more than might be expected, considering his steady reverses in his profession of running for the presidency, but his fortune does not reach the figure that Cannon named; hence the latter's criminal alliance with predatory corporations.

Perhaps Mr. Bryan ought to be sympathized with. When we remember the boundless oceans of language that he has had to utter to win a part of the money, and the perspiring effort necessary to keep from the Wilow Bennett the $50,000 left him by her husband—a party who had gone dippy over the Nebraska candidate and cut that sum out of his relict's patrimony—we ought, perhaps, to conclude that he has earned the money by the sweat of his brow and conscience. And it is unnatural not to be interested in the fact that he has so signally prospered in finances at the same time that he has experienced such reverses in statesmanship.

But what stands forth acutely is the difference between the ideas of Grover Cleveland and those of William Jennings Bryan as to the method of treating such things—the two conceptions of personal dignity. It is to be accounted for in the attitudes of the two men before the people. Mr. Bryan poses as the very especial friend and savior of the "downtrodden." He ever strives to have it understood that he is the champion of the common people. He is the apostle of the poor. It really is not impressive that he should have got rich out of such apostleship. That he should have made big money in leading the poor and the dissatisfied out of bondage evidently operates to his discomfiture. His pretense and posing render it necessary to make a pitiful explanation as to how he got his money.

Cleveland never pretended. He was never in a position that was equivocal. He never posed. He never felt the necessity of explaining. When assailed he trusted the good sense of good citizens to discern the truth. For the other class he had less than no fear.

There is a mighty difference between the character of the man who was the candidate for the presidency in 1884, 1888 and in 1892, and that of the man who was the candidate in 1896, 1900 and is the candidate in 1908. As a matter of fact the only point of comparison between them is the fact that each has been a three-time candidate. Further comparison is impossible from the fact that Cleveland was twice a winner.

Editor Rowell Has a Bad Turn Over the Press.

On the 11th of August there was a political blizzard that covered deep some persons who had made boasts of their ability to withstand such inclemency. They have been more or less submerged ever since, but lately one of them who lives down at Fresno and edits a newspaper has managed to get his head above the surface, and last night he held forth on the late spell of weather in a lecture before the Men's League of the Pilgrim Congregational Church, Eighth avenue, near East Fifteenth street, San Francisco. The subject of his observations was "The Press—Its Power and Shame."

In short, the premises are that the press that "enjoys" shame is that division that was against the Lincoln-Roosevelt League, and that was not able to become perfectly enamoured of the Rowell brand of purity. Also the newspapers which, as soon as they "dropped" on the true character of Rudolph Spreckels' personally conducted graft prosecuting enterprise, ceased their peacans to the saccharine reformer.

At the outset everybody lent a hand and approved the proposition to punish grafters. Rowell would have it that the press changed its attitude from sheer wickedness; that while himself and Angel Spreckels were struggling with demons of darkness, those who should have stood by ran away and adopted tactics calculated to defeat righteousness.

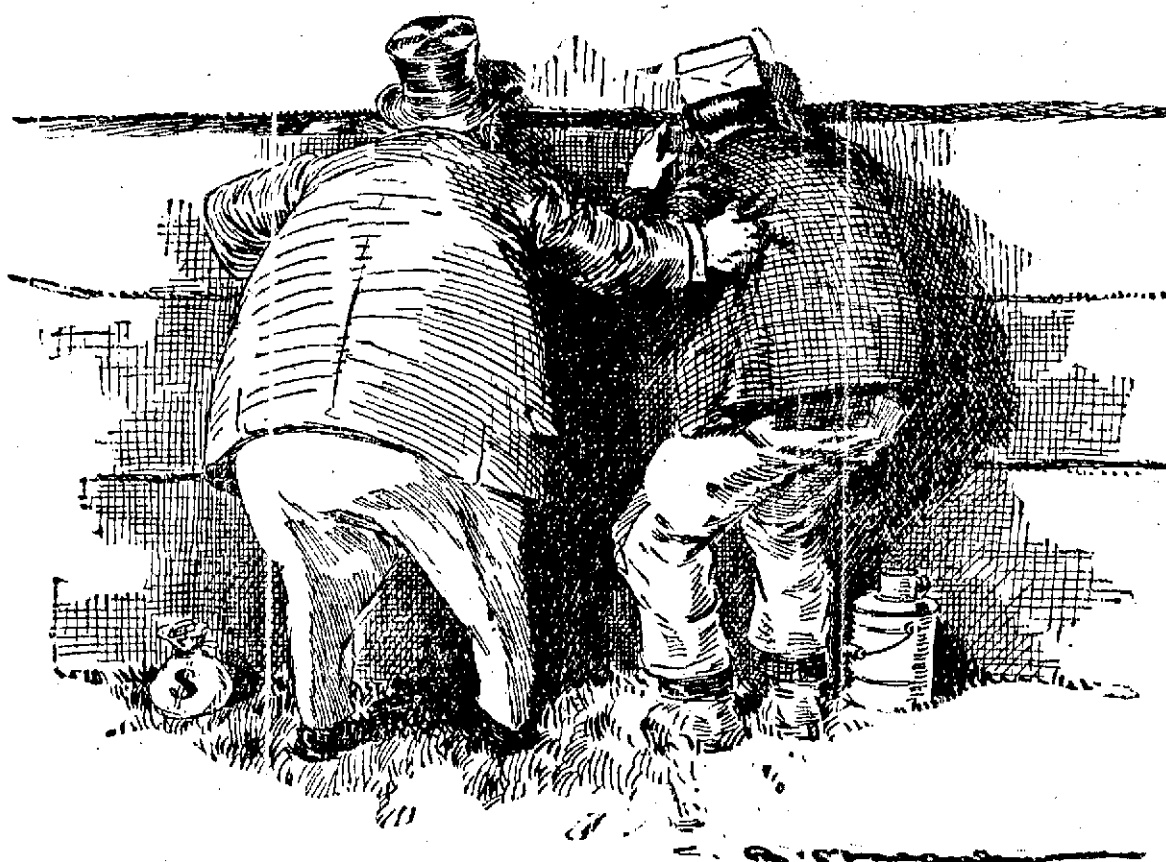

The facts are well known. There was approval of Spreckels at first. Decent people wanted grafters punished. But very soon they saw that graft in general was not under the ban of the self-appointed deliverer of the city. They were made aware of his midnight conferences on military reservations, where the law does not reach, with grafters, to the end that sixteen of them who had confessed were granted immunity and the privilege of retaining their offices in consideration of giving testimony calculated to ruin men who were the personal enemies of Spreckels and whose interests he was desirous of wrecking. They learned how the arch grafter was given a written contract of immunity, and heard the lawyers in the case deny that such had been done. They saw a grand jury used to further ends not possible to lawful processes, and they were favored with the spectacle of judges going to reprehensible lengths beyond the province and the dignity of the bench in carrying out the personal and malevolent program. The newspaper which the Fresno purist excerpts from his sweeping condemnation of the press tried all the cases in advance, and inveighed for months against men and interests in the most abandoned rage.

Then the people saw the whole graft prosecution turned into a political machine, with the Fresno man wielding the mahout's hook. They saw the attorneys of the graft prosecutors dispersed over the State, denouncing men merely because they were Republicans and outraging decency in general.

Seeing these things there was a reversal of sentiment which anybody with reasonable sense ought to understand. It is no cause of deprecation or worry. It does not afford even a decent excuse for a church lecture. It is briefly explained in the statement that the plain, everyday, honest people discovered the sham of a movement of great pretense, and turned their backs on the same. They do not want such humbug reform as Rudolph Spreckels stands for, nor such counterfeit purity as is embodied in the professions of the editor from Fresno.

Electing Senators by Popular Vote.

Letting the popular vote determine the choice of Senators has become the rule in several States, although the practice is not recognized by the Federal Constitution. In Wisconsin the Republican electors have decided that Senator Stephenson shall succeed himself, and in Washington Senator Ankeny has been rejected at primary for Congressman Wesley L. Jones. In Nevada, the electorate will decide between Senator Newlands, Democrat, and P. L. Flanagan, Republican, an agreement having been made by which the legislative nominees of both parties bind themselves to vote for the candidate receiving the highest number of votes at the general election. Similarly Governor George E. Chamberlain has been made the popular choice in Oregon. The verdict of the polls retired Senator Long in Kansas in favor of former Assistant Postmaster-General Bristow. In Iowa and Illinois the Senatorial succession, so far as the Republicans are concerned, was decided at the primaries, Senator Allison winning in Iowa over Governor Cummins and Senator Hopkins beating Congressman Foss in Illinois. In Missouri the Democratic voters gave their preference to Senator Stone over Governor Folk. Thus by voluntary action or local legislation permitting the electors to signify their choice, the popular vote is becoming, in many States, the controlling factor in selecting United States Senators. In Tennessee, Texas and South Carolina, the Senatorial succession was settled by popular vote as expressed in the Democratic primaries. So without changing the Constitution, the people are settling a vexed question and bringing the Senate in closer accord with public sentiment.

The Sacramento Star, Lincoln-Roosevelt League organ, says the Oakland convention was controlled by the "sewer element" of the Republican party. Perhaps the Star's instincts prompt its epithets. It manifests the manners and qualities of the type of alleged reformer that opens all discussion with the charge the opponent is a crook and winds up with the statement that he is a liar. Failure to plead guilty to both counts is treated as a confession of abandoned iniquity. It would, perhaps, be outrageous to doubt the loyalty or Republicanism of a newspaper which alleges that the convention which nominated the Republican candidates and made the Republican platform was controlled by the "sewer element." It will hardly induce electors to vote for men and policies by alleging that they originated in the sewer and are the spawn of filth and degradation. Apparently the Sacramento Star is trying to be as nasty as the Fresno Republican.

Mr. Bryan should not be too harshly judged for calling workmen beggars. That was in 1893, and American workmen generally were in a state bordering on beggary. A Democratic administration was in power.

When the Prohibition candidate for President says he will call out the troops, if elected, to suppress the liquor traffic he is only chaffin'.

THIS WOMAN HAS THE WANDER- LUST

Second Disappearance of Mrs. Neusella—Neither Relatives Nor the Police Are Worried.

Although detectives today resumed the search for Mrs. Neusella, a bride of a few months who has been missing for the past six weeks, it is the general opinion that the young woman has not met with harm. It was stated at police headquarters this morning that Mrs. Neusella had disappeared for two months shortly before her marriage and was found working as a domestic but a few doors from her father's home.

According to the report made to the police late yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Neusella disappeared from her home at 1775 Grove street six weeks ago without leaving any note to explain her action. Her relatives kept the case a secret until yesterday, being of the opinion that her going was but the caprice of an adventurous girl.

HUSBAND IS WORRIED.
It was also noted that she had gone to Jacksonville, Ill., to a former sweetheart, but both surmises are now believed to be false, and her husband is fearful that she has met with harm.

The girl's father, A. E. Thompson, is an electrician in the employ of the United Railroads in San Francisco and lives at 2117 San Jose avenue. According to his report, his daughter had made threats to end her own life on more than one occasion. The missing woman is described as being 18 years old, five feet four-inches tall, of stout build, weighs 136 pounds and is a blonde. She has brown hair and blue eyes. She was last seen in the past few days, according to reports made to the police by persons whose names are withheld.

WIFE OF RICH GROCER WINS BOTH HER POINTS

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11.—Miss Knox Jennings, wife of Edward R. Lathrop said yesterday his client would return to her home on Green street with the boy as soon as the restraining order is served.

Judge Seawell made an order directing Jennings to pay his wife $200 within five days and $175 a month maintenance till the adjudication of their divorce, when it will be decided if she is entitled to permanent alimony.

STONE UP THE STOMACH

Get Rid of the Gas, Headaches and Dizziness.

The symptoms of stomach trouble vary. Some victims have a ravenous appetite, some loathe the sight of food. Often there is a feeling as of weight on the chest, a full feeling in the throat. Sometimes the gas presses on the heart and leads the sufferer to think he has heart disease. Sick headache is a frequent and distressing symptom.

A very delicate stomach requires easily digested food but nature never intended that the food should be digested before it is eaten. The stomach must be strengthened to perform its own work and what it needs is not food already digested but a tonic. The processes of digestion are controlled by the blood and nerves, and medical science has produced no better digestive tonic than

This Year.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11.—Col. Marlon P. Maus, commanding the Department of California, has gone to Camp Atascadero, near Paso Robles, Hot Springs, to inspect the field for the coming joint military maneuvers between the regular troops and the National Guard of California, Arizona and New Mexico, which will begin October 4.

Colonel Maus, Nipper of this city, has been appointed disbursing officer for the funds appropriated by Congress for the expenses of the National Guard during the maneuvers.

It is estimated that the entire cost of the joint maneuvers will be in the neighborhood of $250,000. Of this amount $70,000 will be used for the pay of the officers and enlisted men of the National Guard of this State.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 11.—The formal notification of John Temple Graves of his nomination as the Vice Presidential candidate of the Independence party will take place here tonight.

PAUL MULLEN PLACED ON TRIAL ON ASSAULT CHARGE

Tried to Kill Tommy West, Prizefighter

(Special to The Tribune.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11.—Paul Mullen, formerly a contractor and well known in the sporting community, was brought to trial in Judge Cook's court this morning on a charge of assault to murder for shooting Tommy West, the ex-prizefighter, in broad daylight on Ellis street on January 3, 1908.

It will be recalled that West was debarré from the ring following an incident in New York when he was accused of having soaked his boxing gloves in oil of mustard just before stopping into the ring for a pugilistic combat. On the night previous to the shooting, West and Mullen had had a dispute over a fight which had been pulled off several days before and it is claimed West cut Mullen in the eye.

On January 3, as the former was walking on Ellis street near Fillmore, Mullen suddenly darted from a doorway and shot him in the side. The assailant was immediately arrested and has been kept in custody ever since. West recovered from his wound but has never been the same man physically since.

The trial began at 11:30 this morning, and it is expected that a verdict will be reached before night.

THINK BODY OF YOUTH WAS SEEN

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11.—The body of one of the five boy victims lost in the bay more than a week ago off Yerba Buena Island is thought to have been sighted in the fairway last night by Captain Loffinwall of the tug Mariner.

The corpse, sighted by the tug Mariner, was clothed in a striped jersey of the sort worn by the missing lads and it appeared to be that of a young man. At the time the mariner passed the body the vessel was towed by a tug and it was impossible for her commander to stop and make an attempt to recover the remains.

The tow boat put in to Vallejo street wharf, however, and after reporting the incident one of Crowley's launches was dispatched to hunt for the victim. All night was spent in the search, but those in the launch failed to catch any sight of the corpse. In view of this failure the police were called upon to aid in the hunt and the police launch patrol, in command of Sergeant Donovan, is now scouring the bay in the vicinity of Yerba Buena Island for a glimpse of the drowned lad's body.

CEYLON TO PRODUCE NEW LOT OF CAMPHOR

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—An important contribution to the world's supply of camphor is promised as the result of the planting operations in Ceylon, says Vice-Consul Doyle at Colombo, in a report. British planters there believe that Ceylon in a few years will produce a greater quantity of camphor than the world's present demand.

SAYS THIS COUPLE STOLE HIS JEWELRY

(Special to The Tribune.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11.—Claiming that they have robbed him of money and jewelry to the value of $1000, Joseph Moser, a jeweler of 418 Jough street, secured a warrant from Judge Shortall this morning for the arrest of Mr. and Mrs. George Fitzgerald.

Moser claims that the couple have been residing at the Gough street house for some time, and several days ago a valise suddenly disappeared from his room. He did not notice the loss at once, but having occasion to look for it this morning, found it gone. The satchel contained $905 in gold and several hundred dollars worth of pins and rings of various values.

Moser says the Fitzgeralds have disappeared and he does not know their present whereabouts.

STABS HIMSELF 14 TIMES WITH KNIFE

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11.—Frank McKenna, a laborer employed by the San Francisco Gas and Electric Company, attempted to commit suicide at 12:45 o'clock today by stabbing himself in the left breast with a pocket-knife. McKenna has been despondent through over-indulgence in drink and inflicted fourteen wounds with a knife at his residence, 123 Germania avenue. He was removed to the Central Emergency Hospital and is expected to recover.

BRYAN SAYS HE IS WORTH ABOUT $150,000

Democratic Candidate Tells of Wealth and Throws Hot Shot At Speaker Cannon.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Sept. 11.—Heavy personal onslaughts on Speaker Joseph G. Cannon of the House of Representatives were made yesterday by W. J. Bryan in the course of his travels through Illinois.

The Democratic candidate for President later on, at Olney, Ill., where he stayed for three hours, openly accused the speaker of telling a falsehood when the speaker fixed Bryan's wealth at $1,000,000.

WAS WORTH $3000.

In speaking of his wealth at Olney, Bryan said:

"I was worth about $3000 when I was elected to Congress. I served four years, and by careful economy I saved between $3000 and $4000, or about $1000 a year so that when I went out of Congress in the spring of 1895 I was worth about $6000 or $7000. During the period that elapsed between the end of my Congressional term and my nomination for the Presidency, about a year and four months, I was engaged in speaking and lecturing, and added but a small sum to my savings. After the election in 1896 my earnings power as a lecturer was largely enhanced by the prominence which the campaign had given me in lecturing, and added but a small sum to my savings. I gave an equal amount of the profits to the various committees that had carried on the campaign of 1896.

LECTURES PAY WELL.

"My lectures have been profitable and my writings paid me well, but no one attends the lectures unless he wants to do so, and no one buys what I write unless he is interested in reading it. More than half of my income since 1896 has been given to gratuitous work, and yet I have been able to support myself and accumulate property which I would estimate at about $125,000; but as one can never accurately say what property is worth until he sells it, I will fix $150,000 as the outside limit, the maximum of my wealth, and I am willing to leave the public to determine whether that is more than I ought to have earned, or whether I have earned it honestly.

"And now, having answered the criticism of Mr. Cannon and shown that his accusation is false, I think I am justified in asking him to be as frank with the public as I have been.

ATTACKS CANNON.

"He began holding office in 1891 when I was a year old and during the last forty-seven years he has held office more than forty years of the time, and about thirty years of that time he has been a member of Congress and has been drawing a salary that the members of Congress thought so inadequate that the salary has recently been increased. Will he tell us what he has been selling, to whom he has sold it, and how much he got for it? He ought to tell us whether he has made any money lecturing or writing, that is, by selling wind and ink, to choose his own language. He has been greatly hampered in the accumulation of money by the strict attention to public duties and yet he is reputed to be wealthy. If he will tell us just how much he is worth we can then guess how much he might have been worth had he been free to devote his talents to money-making."

SECRET DIVORCE FOR WEALTHY MAN

J. D. Callaghan, S. F. Warehouse Owner, and Wife Are Separated by Old Decree.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11.—J. D. Callaghan, the wealthy warehouse owner of San Francisco, and his wife, who is a prominent social figure in this city and Palo Alto, where they have their home, have been secretly divorced. News of the granting of the decree became known last night through Louis O'Neil of San Jose, attorney for Mrs.

Callaghan, who says the decree was granted two months ago. Mrs. Callaghan spent three months at Pacific Grove in the summer with her two children. Callaghan lived with them a part of the time, and it was rumored after their return to Palo Alto that the couple had agreed upon a separation.

GROUND'S SECRET. The grounds for the divorce have been kept secret, but it is known that Callaghan has had custody of the two children and has been living with them at the home of his sister on Monte Heights since separating from his wife. "Mrs. Callaghan refused to discuss her differences with her husband when seen at her home in Palo Alto last night. She said that she was too busy working to discuss her affairs. It is understood that she intends to leave soon for Southern California.

Mrs. Callaghan was a Miss Carey before her marriage to the warehouse man. Her father was an Australian sea captain, and she met Callaghan while attending school in San Francisco.

Knights of Northern California Will Commemorate the Birthday of the Order.

The Knights of the Maccabees all over the United States will celebrate next Saturday, September 12th, in commemoration of the institution of the order, and California, always in the front, will do her share to keep up the interest in this great work. The Knights of Northern California will congregate at Santa Cruz, on Saturday next and take part in a monster banquet, to be given in the roof garden of the Casino. After the banquet a large class of candidates will be initiated in the pavilion.

WILL PERFORM WORK. The State degree team of the order will conduct the ceremonies and this will be a guarantee for an exhibition of degree work as has never before been seen in the order.

A special train will leave First and Broadway on Saturday at 2:10 p. m. and will arrive in Santa Cruz about 6 o'clock. This train will carry members of the order and their friends and families. Upon its arrival at Santa Cruz the non-members will be taken in hand by the local ladies of the Maccabees and feasted and entertained in the evening.

MANY EXCURSIONS. Accommodations for the night have been set aside by the local committee but intending visitors will do well to communicate with the committee in charge.

The railroad tickets are good for three days or until Monday evening for return. Various side excursions have been arranged for Sunday, to the many points of interest close to Santa Cruz. A large crowd has already bought tickets so that a jolly time is insured for those who go.

BANKER HELLMAN ENDOWS HOSPITAL

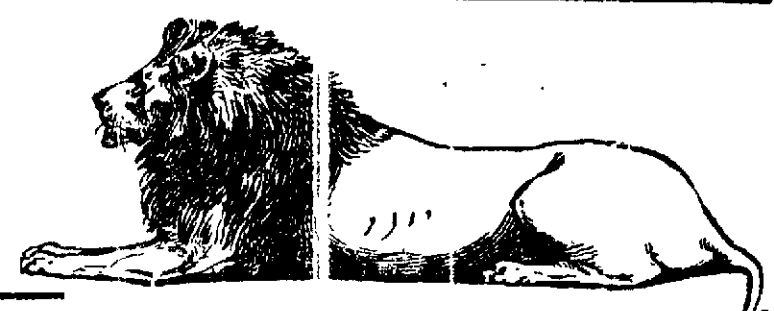

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11.—I. W. Hellman, president of the Wells Fargo Nevada Bank, yesterday announced to the directors of Mount Zion Hospital his desire to give $100,000 for the erection of a modern hospital, to be known as the Esther Hellman building, in memory of his wife, who died recently. The new building will be placed on the property of the association on Point Lobos avenue near the French Hospital. It is given by Hellman to realize the hopes of his wife who for years was president of the Ladies Auxiliary of the institution. The directors accepted the gift and adopted resolutions thanking Hellman for his action. At the conclusion of the meeting President J. B. Levinson said that this gift was the largest single charitable donation ever given on the Pacific Coast. Mount Zion Hospital owns the property at its present location, 2341 Sutter street. In addition to the Point Lobos avenue lot, President Levinson says that while the institution is maintained solely by Jewish subscriptions it is non-sectarian in its work.

We don't intend to beg you to buy a lot — and if you will only see Bay Point we will not even ask you to purchase — you will decide for your self and buy. Just as everyone has done who has gone there to learn the facts and see the wonderful work that has been done and is going on.

Make up your mind to get on a train and go to Bay Point Saturday or Sunday. Trains leave Market street for $2.00 and $4.00 a. m., Southern Pacific. Get a round trip ticket, we will refund your fare if you decide to buy a lot, or better yet, come into our office and we will arrange matters satisfactorily and supply you with folders and all the information you wish, regarding the City of Bay Point.

We only ask you to go and see for yourself — and think for yourself — as we can do neither for you, and you will agree that we cannot over estimate the sure profits in store for those who have enough foresight to recognize a golden opportunity.

Remember — lots are sold on the easiest terms—with these conditions:

Should you at any time be in distress, we will refund all the money you have paid in on the return of your contract.

Should you become sick you need not pay until you are able.

Should you become disabled for life through any cause, we will give you a deed for your lot without further payment or refund all the money you paid us.

Should you die — we will give a free and clear deed to your heirs or heirs, including all moneys you have paid to us, with interest added.

If you can find anywhere an offer as liberal as we have presented here we will give you a lot free.

Don't miss the opportunity or the 8:20 or 10:20 Southern Pacific train at Market street ferry tomorrow — if you can't go tomorrow — go Sunday — come into our office anyway and get a map and folder before you go.

WOULD-BE SUICIDE FACES CHARGE OF KILLING FRIEND

HOLD DAVIS FOR RUSTIN MURDER

IDENTIFIES SUSPECT AS HE ENTERS COURT

Dr. J. P. Lord Declares He Saw Arrested Man Near Slain Physician's House.

OMAHA, Sept. 11.—"That looks like the man I saw coming from the Rustin home the night of the murder," said Dr. J. P. Lord to the chief of police, when Charles E. Davis, under arrest, charged with the murder of Dr. Frederick T. Rustin, was taken before the court this morning for arraignment.

This was the first time Dr. Lord had been confronted with Davis and his identification of him as the man he saw staggering down Farnum street after the shooting of Dr. Rustin, which was filed against him some days ago. As soon as he entered the building he was rearrested on a charge of murder in the first degree, and was taken before the court for arraignment.

Standing before the bar, Davis listened intently to the reading of the complaint, and the answer of "Not guilty," entered by Davis' attorney, application was made for bail, which was refused. Attorney English advised the court that under the Nebraska laws a charge of murder in the first degree was bailable in cases where the evidence was not conclusive, and recommended that a sufficient amount to insure Davis' attendance in court, when wanted, be named.

"Make it as large as you please. We will give it," answered Latham Davis. Seven thousand dollars was fixed as the bail and immediately arranged by the Davis brothers. The hearing was set for September 24, after which Davis was released and left the jail, accompanied by his two brothers and his attorney.

HAVE ALIBI WITNESS.
Frank Graham, auditor of the Omaha National Bank, probably will be the strongest and the main witness of this Davis brothers in establishing an alibi for Charles Davis. Graham lives at the Chatham where Davis lives, and rooms in an adjoining room to that of Davis. On the night of the Rustin murder Graham says he was awakened by some one vomiting in Davis' room. He got up and looked at his watch. It was just 8 o'clock, he says. The shooting occurred about 2 o'clock. Davis' room is two miles from the Rustin home.

KIDNAPED FROM JUVENILE COURT

Little Daughter, Valued at $500,000, Will Have To Come Back.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 11.—Arvilla Bell, the 10-year-old daughter of Cora Martine, more widely known as Cora Bell Davis, who is in jail at Denver, will be brought to this city by order of the juvenile court, from whose jurisdiction she was kidnaped by her mother more than two years ago and a half ago. The little girl, who is extremely pretty, is, according to the mother's story, the child of a Pittsburgh millionaire named Barnsdale.

Judge Wilbur, who returns from his vacation Saturday, said at Santa Barbara that he would take the necessary steps immediately to have the child returned to California and to punish the Martine woman, if possible, for contempt of court.

SUED FOR $500,000.
Mrs. Martine, who then gave the name of Davis, first came into prominence about five years ago, when she threatened to go to Pennsylvania and bring suit against the Pittsburgh millionaire for $500,000.

Mrs. Martine, who now gives the name of Cora B. Crocker-Martine, claiming to be related to the Crockers of San Francisco, is held in the East, pending an investigation into the conduct of her husband, Mr. Martine, who is charged with forgery. The child is in the detention home at Denver.

ATHLETIC CO-ED NEARLY DROWNED IN BAY WATERS

STRENGTH FAILS IN A LONG SWIM

Miss Rose Schmidt, Popular Sorority Girl at U. C., Saved By Her Cousin.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 11.—Exhausted by a long swim, Miss Rose Schmidt, a student of the University of California, and prominent in sorority and social circles, would have drowned in the surf off the south Alameda shore Wednesday evening but for the timely assistance of her companion, Miss Marion Mitchell.

The two young women entered the surf from the Seaside Yacht Club shortly before 8 o'clock. The tide was going out and the young women decided to swim out to the channel stakes a distance of half a mile over a course usually attempted only by men swimmers. They had no difficulty in covering the outward course, but had failed to take note of the tide and when they attempted to return they found they were swimming against current and wind.

Half the return distance had been covered when Miss Schmidt called to her companion that her strength had failed. She lay limp on the water and Miss Mitchell with a few strokes reached her cousin's side. She buoyed her as best she could with her own failing strength, and then called for help.

Her cries were heard by Harold Dunne, who happened to be at the clubhouse and who launched a light skiff and rowed out to the two girls.

REV. E. E. BAKER TO OCCUPY BERKELEY PULPIT

Says He Will Have To Rummage Around For Suitable Sermons.

"You see, I must rummage through the barrel and find a sermon that will be adaptable to a congregation of church members as most of my sermons have been delivered from a Presbyterian standpoint."

Thus spoke Rev. E. E. Baker, former pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of this city in regard to his acceptance of a temporary position in the pulpit of the First Congregational Church of Berkeley. Rev. Baker's first sermon will be preached next Sunday.

Rev. Baker, who announced his retirement from the ministry and accepted a position in the secular position as assistant manager of an Eastern stock exchange, has promised the congregation of the Berkeley church to take charge of the Sunday service until a permanent pastor has been secured.

Recently Rev. William H. Hopkins, pastor of the First Congregational Church at Berkeley, accepted the call of the First Presbyterian Church of Alameda, N. Y. was compelled to vacate his Berkeley pulpit before his successor had been appointed.

SHEEP MEN SUE U. S. PRESIDENT

Claim Land Set Aside as Forest Reserve Should Be Used For Grazing.

RENO, Nov. 11.—For the first time in the history of this country a President and other officials are being sued to prevent the government from withdrawing timber lands from government reserves. In the Federal court at Carson yesterday the case of the Nevada Live Stock Company against President Roosevelt, Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, Chief Forester Pinchot and Forester Barnett is being argued, attacking the right of the defendants to withdraw for timber purposes a large portion of the Monitor forest reserve in Elureka county.

The plaintiffs state that they were grazing about 10,000 sheep on the reserve before it was withdrawn, and now they are refused that right; also alleging that the reserve withdrawn is more adapted for agricultural and mineral purposes than it is for timber, and therefore should not be withdrawn. The case will be continued tomorrow. Every sheep man in the northern part of the State is vitally interested.

DRAWN INTO CASE.
On Washington's Birthday, 1907, it was discovered that the palatial Drescher home had been robbed of diamonds valued at many thousands of dollars. Mrs. Martine and her husband were dragged into the case. It was alleged that a messenger service of which Martine was manager was merely a tool by which jewelry in big residences might be spotted and plans laid for the subsequent robbery.

Persons who claim to know Mrs. Martine say she is related to the Crocker family of San Francisco and received annual remittances for her support.

DR. TANNER SUES FOR BIG DAMAGES

Asks That Court Give Him Judgment Against Automobile Company.

Late yesterday afternoon a suit was filed by the Rev. W. E. Tanner in the office of the county clerk against the White Automobile Company for damages sustained in a collision between the minister and an automobile on the San Leandro road last March. The suit, which is for $21,077.50, includes $20,000 of general damages, $200 for the expense of providing other ministers to fill Dr. Tanner's place in the pulpit, $437 for his enforced relinquishment of work on books and literary articles estimated to yield a revenue of $37.50 per year, physicians' services, $570, nurses, 60, and medicines $20.

STRUCK DOWN.
The accident which led to Dr. Tanner's suit against the automobile company occurred on the afternoon of March 31 of this year. The minister was riding a bicycle on East Fourteenth street between Hayward and San Leandro when he was struck from behind by an automobile owned by the White company, sustaining injuries to his back ribs and head and a severe nervous shock to his entire system. The complaint alleges that the automobile chauffeur gave no warning to the cyclist, either by horn or other means and that he was exceeding the speed limit of 20 miles an hour at the time of the accident.

ALLEGES CARELESSNESS.
Dr. Tanner also claims that the machine was being driven in a careless negligent and dangerous manner. He states that he was confined to his bed for a long period and that it was five months before he was able to assume his duties as minister of his church. In view of these facts he believes that $21,077.50 is reasonable remuneration for the pain and suffering undergone by him.

CHINESE NATIVE SONS Have Big Celebration

While the American native-born of this state were celebrating California's admission into the Union at Monterey Wednesday, 100 Chinese youths, members of the United Parlor, Native Sons of the Golden State, were holding a similar celebration in this city, but on a much smaller scale.

The members of the United Parlor are all natives of California. The constitution of the order is very similar to that of the Native Sons of the Golden State.

Wednesday evening the 100 members adjourned to a restaurant at Eighth and Webster streets, where, with many flights of oratory, they celebrated the raising of the Bear Flag and the spirit of '49. The United Parlor has its headquarters at Tenth and Webster streets.

CASA BLANCA, Sept. 11.—Abd-El-Aziz, the former Sultan of Morocco, has written a letter to Moulou, one of his leaders, thanking him for his support, but saying that he has decided to abandon the struggle. Moulou replied that he would not submit to Abd-El-Aziz and it is believed that he intends to enter the field against the new ruler of the empire.

THAW FAILS TO MEET WITH HIS CREDITORS

Referee In Bankruptcy Refuses To Have Prisoner Cited For Contempt.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 11.—The second hearing in the bankruptcy case of H. R. Thaw was held today before referee in bankruptcy W. R. Blair. Two attorneys, W. C. Boyd of Poughkeepsie, New York, and A. P. Meyer of Stone & Stone, were present.

Attorney Boyd asked what had been done with a view of bringing the bankrupt to attend the meeting of his creditors today. Referee Blair informed him that Attorney Meyer had positively refused to appear on Thaw at the jail in Poughkeepsie.

Attorney Boyd, who represents Charles J. N. Blair, proprietor of a restaurant at Poughkeepsie, then called Referee Blair's attention to section 41 of the bankruptcy act, and alleged that the absence of Thaw from the meeting today practically amounted to contempt.

He asked the referee to issue a certificate to the proceedings so that it might be brought to the attention of a judge in the United States District Court for proper action.

Referee Blair stated that he did not think it was altogether right and fair for a petitioner in bankruptcy to be cited for contempt of court five minutes after the calling of a meeting of creditors at which he had been asked to be present. He said he would refuse the certificate and requested Attorney Boyd to be one of each step he took in the proceedings.

Attorney Boyd then left the referee's office with a promise to return later.

SECOND ATTEMPT.
A second attempt by Attorney Boyd to secure a certificate from Judge Young of the United States court was made shortly after noon today and failed. Referee Blair held that the bankrupt who was ordered to appear today, is not in default until the day he fails to appear. Attorney Boyd said tomorrow will be time enough to secure the certificate. He also suggested that the petition for contempt should show a reason for taking the matter into the court room.

KAISER TO GO INTO FRANCE

FRENCH ASTONISHED AT PROPOSED VISIT

Emperor To Cross Frontier To View Field Where Great Army Has Been Practicing.

PARIS, Sept. 11.—The government today received official information that Emperor William, the army maneuvers at Alsace-Lorraine being at an end, would this afternoon, cross the French frontier in an automobile as a simple tourist for the purpose of enjoying the magnificent view from the top of the Schluess mountains.

Although considerably astonished that Emperor William should choose the present moment for the first visit to French territory to be made by a German emperor since the king of Prussia was proclaimed emperor at Versailles in 1871, the government at once dispatched instructions to customs officials to allow the imperial automobile to pass the frontier without examination and for the proper guarding of the route by gendarmes to prevent any unfortunate incident.

According to the official advice the emperor will have to traverse only about one hundred yards of French soil in order to reach a point whence he can view the splendid panorama of the valley of the Moselle and the valleys of the Sarre and the Moselle rivers which flow through pine forests in the Moselle valley.

CHARGE A BOY WITH HOUSE STEALING

Ten Years Old and When Searched the Police Find a Revolver in His Pocket.

Ten-year old Tommy Hill, who lives with his parents on Third street, was charged with stealing a bicycle from the city police station. He is the youngest person ever found in a large house on such a serious charge.

Young Hill was found in possession of a bicycle owned by H. J. Dabbs, Third street, he having been taken from the city police station and brought to the city and a search of his pockets disclosed a .25 caliber revolver.

YOUTHFUL HIGHWAYMAN.
It is presumed that his coming to the city was a result of the young suspect's previous capture. On a previous occasion Hill helped himself to the same bicycle but he was turned over to the police, but on this occasion he was released and sent to his parents. The boy is small, black, and in overalls. He admitted his guilt, but excused his act.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE AGAINST RAISING SACRAMENTO LICENSE

Favors Local Option, Says: Increase Would Only Entrench Those It Fights.

The following circular has been sent by the Oakland Anti-Saloon League to each of the clergymen in Sacramento county:

Dear Brother: I notice that there is a movement on foot in Sacramento to raise the license fee of the saloons of your city, and I am afraid that even enemies of the saloon will be drawn into such a movement. I hope, for the sake of the ultimate extinction of the open saloon, that the proposed movement will not be successful and will have your support.

President Lincoln himself, when the license policy was first adopted, and when he was important to sign a bill taxing liquors, refused to do it because he could see that there would eventually be fastened upon the people an incubus greater than that of human slavery, and it was only because of the pressure put by the party leaders and men in office at that time, as well as the financiers, that it was only a year measure, and when the war was over it would be repealed, that he finally reluctantly signed the measure. And as you know, the war was over. President Lincoln was dead and the law was never repealed, but has proven just as Lincoln foresaw.

HARD TO DISLOGE

In every community that I have ever known where the license has been raised, it has been more difficult, and in a real many of them as yet impossible, to dislodge the saloon power. The reason for it is that the taxes of the people are lessened with every raise in the license fee, and to the ordinary man $1 on his tax list looks much larger to him than the moral welfare of even his own son.

If the people of Sacramento raise the license fee of the saloon, while it looks plausible that they can thus curtail the traffic in the city, they will prove an entrenchment behind which the saloon keeper will more successfully fight his battle. The more the license is raised, which is proving most successful in the United States at the present time in favor of keeping the saloon open, the more the liquor traffic is paying the taxes, in supporting the State, and the taxpayer does not dare eliminate it.

WANT LOCAL OPTION.

I have found these arguments by the saloon men in every State in the Union where I have worked, and all the changes upon this argument are the same. They want to keep the saloon open in working order for a local option law, rather than to vote the saloon out entirely from the different wards in Sacramento, and in time from the city itself. They intend to lead ammunition to the enemy which will enable them to sustain themselves for an indefinite term.

SALOONS FAVOR INCREASE.

I am enclosing a copy of a letter received from northwestern Ohio, which shows that the saloon men in that State are in Ohio of raising the license tax to $1000, and the results have not been all what were expected. The saloon men of course, the saloon men will fight the raising of the license fee, but if you would raise the license fee, you would be between paying a very high license and local option in the words of the city, there would be little question in regard to what choice the saloon men would make.

I hope and pray, for the sake of the final overthrow of the saloon, that this movement for high license in Sacramento will be discouraged by the real friends of progress against the saloon.

Yours for the suppression of the saloon,
(Signed)
W. M. BURKE,
Superintendent, Oakland District.

MORE LAW-ABIDING.

The following extracts from a letter by Hon. K. V. Baymader of Delaware, Ohio, deserve careful perusal:

"In your letter, I note what you say about the increase in the Ohio liquor tax being a mistake. I heartily agree with what you say. In addition to your objections let me add an item or two growing out of our experience with the saloons since the tax was raised from $500 to $1000.

"First—That with this additional burden the number of saloons would be greatly diminished.

"Second—That saloons paying so large a tax would be much more decent and law-abiding—that the law-breaking keepers of low dives would be forced out of business, and the remaining saloons would be left in the hands of law-abiding men, and would become decent places.

RESULT DISAPPOINTING.

"In both these respects the result has been a disappointment. The tax was increased nearly 200 per cent and the saloons were reduced in number approximately about 10 per cent.

"The second result that was looked for did not materialize. It was found that the worst and most disreputable dives, by hook or crook, raised the money for the tax and continued to run, while those that closed up under the additional burden were the better places that most nearly approached respectability. Another most lamentable result followed this increase in the tax: Under this additional burden extra efforts were resorted to by the saloons to increase their business. They have been more flagrant in their violation of the closing ordinance and Sunday law.

GAMBLING DEVICES.

"They have, many of them, added gambling rooms and gambling devices where they were not in use before, and in many instances still more reprehensible features, that need not be named here, have been added as side lines to the bar to bring in additional revenue. Instead of elevating the saloon, the increase in tax has distinctly degraded it, and made it more brutal and unbusinesslike in its violation of law. Many saloon keepers do not hesitate to admit this, and excuse themselves by saying that under the burden of the increased tax they were compelled to do these things to make ends meet."

SOUTHERN BAR ASSOCIATION CONDEMN KERR'S COMMENTS

Say They Impair Respect Due the Court

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 11.—Resolutions condemning "The manner and spirit of portions of the editorial notes and comments of the decision of the Supreme Court in the case of the People vs. Schmitz," as recently published in volume 4 of Kerr's codes of California," were adopted by the Los Angeles Bar Association today.

The comments referred to were published by Kerr in reference to the Supreme Court's decision in the Schmitz French restaurant graft case from San Francisco.

In the comments the annotation reads disparagingly. It is alleged, to the action of the Supreme Court, that such comments, appearing in a book of this character, tend to impair the respect due to the Supreme court from all citizens, whatever be their calling, and are unnecessarily offensive to all the courts of the State.

"This association regrets the composition of such notes by any lawyer and regrets that some have found a publisher."

"We recognize the right, and commend its exercise, of all persons whether lawyer or layman to consider well and to criticize freely the decisions of the Supreme Court and of all other courts. But the right to criticize does not imply the right to insult; certainly not in a publication of the nature we are here considering designed for daily use in the courts themselves.

"We intimate no merit or want of merit of the views entertained by the author. What concerns this association is the question whether the attack under consideration is conceived and expressed in a manner and form fitted to excite unjust resentment against the higher court of the State. In our opinion it is."

BALTIMORE, Sept. 11.—Charles McDonald, Jr., chief grain inspector of the Baltimore Chamber of Commerce, and probably the best known grain inspector throughout the trade in this country, died today.

HALE'S SUFFERS DAMAGE BY FIRE

Blaze of Unknown Origin Discovered in Ceiling of San Jose Store.

SAN JOSE, Sept. 11.—A fire of unknown origin, which started in the ceiling, was discovered by Watchman Albert Zink in the men's furnishing department of Hale's store, on the San Fernando street side, about 6 o'clock this morning, and for two hours the fire department was kept busy fighting the flames, which were finally extinguished before they could spread through the other departments.

An adjoining livery stable, owned by Fire Commissioner Kidward, was in grave danger, and all the horses and vehicles were removed. The loss, partly by water, reached $15,000 and was fully insured. Steele's cigar store was somewhat damaged.

RESTED IN SOUTH FROM ARDUOUS BUSINESS CARES

Jules Abrahamson and Wife Return From Pleasant Vacation.

Jules Abrahamson, of the well known dry goods firm of Abrahamson Brothers, with his wife and family, have returned from an outing in the southern part of the State, which was the most enjoyable they have ever had in that section, which, for many years, has been a favored place in their estimation for rest and recreation.

They visited a number of places and, among them, Monterey, where they made their headquarters at Hotel Del Monte.

NATIVE SONS AND DAUGHTERS. While they were at the resort, the celebration of a Mission Day took place and the exercises on that occasion were so full of interest as to leave an impression on their minds which will not soon be effaced.

There were there many people from all parts of the State who were well known to Mr. and Mrs. Abrahamson and there was an especially large attendance of Native Sons and Daughters from Oakland.

WHOLE-SOULED PEOPLE. A cheering feature of the occasion was the whole-souled manner in which the natives from this city entered into the spirit of the occasion. All of them had money, says Mr. Abrahamson, and there were none who were unwilling to spend it in honor of the occasion and in the entertainment of themselves and their friends.

FEMALE LOVELINESS. There was another fact which was agreeable to both Mr. and Mrs. Abrahamson and that was the exceeding comeliness of the women of this city. This commendation, Mr. Abrahamson says, was merited not alone by the young women but also by those of more mature years, who have done their share in the building up of the great commonwealth of California. In addition to their personal charms, Mr. Abrahamson states that the ladies from this section were the best and most tastefully dressed, even among the finely-garbed women who took part in the celebration.

AUTOMOBILE CLUB WILL ADJUST MATTERS

Dispute Between Factions Is Now Being Arbitrated and May Be Settled Favorably Soon.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—Adjustment of the differences between the Automobile Club of America and the American Automobile Association will, it is hoped, be brought about as a result of the series of conferences now in progress between authorized representatives of the two organizations. The effort to reach an agreement on the questions at issue was begun at a meeting which continued for four hours yesterday. While nothing was officially given out, it was said that the conference had made progress satisfactory to both sides and that further discussion of the matter would, it was believed, result in an equitable settlement of difficulties.

Rivalry between the Automobile Club of America and the American Automobile Association has caused embarrassment to the promoters of the Vanderbilt cup race, through the racing board of the American Automobile Association, the curtailment of entries and to the organization of a rival automobile race meet by the Automobile Club of America to be run at Savannah, Georgia, this fall. An adjustment of the existing differences between the two automobile organizations, it is believed, would result not only in future benefit to automobile racing in this country, but in all probability in larger patronage of and increased interest in both the big racing events scheduled for this fall.

SALOONMAN NOT TAKEN AS JUROR

Judge Lawlor Says Michael Meyer of White Horse Is Ineligible To Serve.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11.—Seven men have been passed on as jurors in the trial of Abe Ruef subject to peremptory challenge. The men who have been passed on are: Alexander Bond, real estate, 2205 Scott street; Matthias D. Meyer, grocer, 2211 Geary street; John Beuttler, butcher, 782 Haight street; Timothy Sullivan, contractor, 1943 Polson street; William H. Garrahan, clerk, 184 South avenue; William S. Harrison, salesman, 6 Lower terrace; Dennis Murphy, retired, 3184 Mission street.

Attorney Henry Ash took exception to the action of Judge Lawlor in arbitrarily ruling out the name of Michael Meyer, a saloon man, employed at the White Horse Tavern, on the ground that he was unfit to serve as a juror in the Ruef case. Ash contended that the court had no right to put a stamp on a man's character. He held that if Meyer were an unworthy person it was the duty of the prosecution and defense to develop the fact.

Judge Lawlor held a contrary view in the matter. Ash objected to the court's ruling that the twenty-six names be placed in the box. He contended that the sheriff should make his complete returns before any such action was taken. Ash complimented the sheriff on his good work in serving so many talesmen and declared he would not challenge the panel, but would object to the ruling in the Meyer matter. James Edward Britt, the pugilist, was on the panel, but the court learned he was sojourning in Europe, so excused him.

AMERICAN YACHT CEYLON IS BURNED

SOUTHAMPTON, Sept. 11.—The American-built steamer yacht Ceylon has been burned to the water's edge off St. Catherine's point. The owner, Captain R. V. Webster of Colombo, and the crew left in boats and were later picked up by a tug. The hulk has been towed into Ventner, Isle of Wight. The Ceylon was built at Shooters Island, New York and was crossing the channel when she caught fire.

WHOLE CITY MOURNS AT BIER OF P. N. LILIENTHAL

Citizens in All Walks of Life Attend the Funeral Service

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11.—The funeral of the late Philip N. Lilienthal, president of the Anglo-California Bank, who was accidentally killed in his automobile last Wednesday afternoon while returning from San Mateo, took place this morning from the home of the deceased, 1305 Franklin street.

It was one of the most largely attended affairs of the kind ever held in this city. The attendance was representative of the cosmopolitan character of the city, for the reason that there was scarcely a class of individuals, a creed or calling which was not represented.

NOT FORMAL BUT HEARTFELT
This tribute was not merely formal, as is too often the case on such occasions, because there were evidences on every hand that there was heartfelt sorrow over the passing of the deceased because of his sterling qualities as a financier, a citizen and a man. There were in the gathering people of many means who had been the recipients of the benefactions or the accommodations of the deceased. There were there, too, leaders in the world of finance as there was also a general representation of the official life of the community. The floral tributes were legion and artistic.

FLAGS AT HALF MAST.
By way of recognizing the bereavement the city had sustained in the death of Mr. Lilienthal, all the flags on the public buildings as well as hundreds of those on private structures were at half mast and there were a number of instances also in which the business of certain firms was suspended with for the day out of respect to the memory of the departed.

SOMETHING OF CONDOLENCE.
The presence of the associates and friends of the deceased was in a measure, consoling to the bereaved family as were also a host of telegrams and letters of condolence which had been received from all parts of the country and even from Europe. It was an occasion of regret, however, that all the members of the family, Mr. Lilienthal's wife and children, were not able to be present at the obsequies, the missing member being the eldest son who did not leave New York until yesterday in response to the request to come as soon as possible after the announcement of the tragedy of which his father was a victim.

SERVICES AT HOME.
The services at the home were simple in the extreme and, in this respect, they were in accordance with the known wishes of the deceased. At their conclusion the remains were borne to the Home of Peace Cemetery, where the interment took place. Previous to the interment, however, there was an eloquent tribute paid to the deceased by Cantor Stark of the Temple Emanuel of this city, who is temporarily taking the place made vacant by the death of the late Rabbi Voorhees.

RABBI NIETO'S TRIBUTE.
With closed eyes Rabbi Nieto continued the service when the other clergyman had completed the scriptural reading. If one had asked me to name the beau ideal of a man in all of San Francisco as I would have named Philip N. Lilienthal, the man whose body lies before us, he began, "God and nature both combine to make this perfect man perfect in the truest, noblest and highest sense. In him courage and kindness were united, and in the stupendous achievements which have marked his life, never once has he used his great strength to oppress. The poor, the halt, the lame, the sick and miserable ones crushed beneath the weight of the trials of the world came naturally to him for relief and always they found the sunshine of his smile, the bounty of his purse and the optimism of his character as a never-failing spring of comfort to their otherwise lead lives. He came of a race of princes not apart by God to work out the problem of amelioration of his race and followed in the footsteps of his father who had no labored loss to the Jews.

The speaker told of the efforts of Mr. Lilienthal's father to bring about a condition of amity between the Jewish people of Russia and the government which was so inconsiderate at times of their well-being, of his son's unselfish efforts along the same lines and his cheerful contributions of money and effort in experiments to assist the poorer Russian Jews who landed in this country without resources.

He predicted that the family of the deceased would not at first realize, nor would the Jewish community comprehend, the loss of both in the passing away of Mr. Lilienthal. He told them that many months would pass ere the full tale of the dead man's private benefactions would be known—and then only from the lips of the ones who had lost their protector.

He continued with a rarely eloquent tribute to the personal character of the deceased, and while the vast throng wept unstrainedly he closed with a fervent petition to the Almighty for the repose of the soul of the dead brother.

The pallbearers were Mayor Edward Robeson Taylor, A. W. Foster, Henry I. Scott, Homer King, W. F. Herrin, Warren Clark, William Bernhe, Leon Sloas, L. N. Walter, William Fries, Arthur Castle and John Earle.

MISS MYRTLE SCHRADER.

—Boyle Photo.

The Seminole Club has announced that its first dance will take place in Maple Hall on Friday evening, October 2.

The club consists of thirty prominent young business men of this city and their friends are anxiously awaiting the time for the season to commence, as the club has given several dances in the past, which have brought it prominently before the younger set on this side of the bay.

Several young women have been named on the committee this time, among them being Miss Myrtle Schrader.

The officers of the club are as follows: President, Frank Du Pree; vice president, Alvin Spencer; recording secretary, Charles Spengler; financial secretary, William Heldenreich.

IDENTIFY BODY FOUND IN CREEK

Friends Recognize Remains Discovered Near Hayward as Those of D. Healy.

The body of the aged man found in the bed of Meek's creek near Hayward, was identified by two Oaklanders late yesterday afternoon, as that of Dennis Healy, who left his home at the Brooklyn House, in East Oakland, a week ago, saying that he had a touch of influenza fever, and intended going to Byron Springs for his health. C. Wolfmum of the latter place says he believes the aged man died of exposure.

Healy was a former employee of the Oakland Street Department, and had lived at the Brooklyn House, at Twenty-second avenue and East Twelfth street, for twenty-two years. He was 76 years of age, and his feebleness had caused him to stay on numerous occasions, that he wanted to go away to some quiet spot to die when his strength finally failed him. There are no indications, however, that he committed suicide.

During his long residence in East Oakland he had made many friends, among them Michael Kelly and George Parke, and when they learned of the finding of the body at Hayward they went out and made the identification yesterday. Healy had no relatives.

GERMAN CHURCHES HOLD CONFERENCE

California M. E. Congregations Now Holding Meeting In the City of Santa Rosa.

SANTA ROSA, Sept. 11.—The California German Methodist Episcopal Church conference was formally opened in this city yesterday morning, when Bishop Henry W. Warren of Denver celebrated the communion service. The attendance of clerical and lay delegates represents all California. Rev. William Schultz of Stockton was elected secretary of the conference.

Rev. George W. Smith, D. D., field secretary of the Board of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church, was the principal speaker yesterday afternoon.

The Rev. G. A. Miller of Manila presented the work of the American Bible Society. Last night Bishop Warren and others made addresses. Rev. C. W. Boswell, D. D., spoke today on "Home Missions and Church Extension." Bishop Warren will announce the pastoral appointments on Sunday.

ESTATES LEFT BY TWO SUICIDES

Petitions For Letters of Administration Recall Two of Oakland's Tragedies.

Petitions for letters of administration on the estates of Angela and Antonio Gallano were yesterday filed in the office of the county clerk by George J. Lynch, public administrator of the county.

Gallano, who formerly conducted a small tailoring establishment at 374 Ninth street, shot his wife three times with a revolver last Monday evening and then committed suicide by firing the two remaining bullets into his own breast. Mrs. Gallano died in the county receiving hospital twenty-four hours after being wounded by her husband.

In his petition for letters of administration, Gray estimates the husband's estate to be worth approximately $200, while that of the wife is as yet unknown.

Gray has also filed a petition for letters on the estate of Daniel H. Donohue, the motorman who committed suicide on September 3, three days after the discovery of his wife's body on the bay flats at Emeryville.

Gray filed special letters immediately upon receipt of the news of Donohue's death, in order that the safe deposit box, supposed to contain Mrs. Donohue's jewelry, might be searched. His petition filed yesterday is made to recover the house and property owned by Donohue in Emeryville, in the back room of which he was found by Deputy Coroner Bert Sargent and Al Wood from the administrator's office. The property is estimated to be worth $800.

CHARGED WITH BEING BOLD HOLD-UP MEN

(Special to The Tribune.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11.—Charged with one of the most daring hold-ups ever perpetrated in this city, Frank Breinen and Joseph Parenti, both well known to the police, were taken into custody yesterday by Detective Conlan and Mackey and this morning booked at the city prison.

The crime for which the two men are wanted exacted a great deal of interest at the time of its execution, owing to the fact that Philip Elster, the victim, was assaulted and beaten to within an inch of his life.

BROTHER-IN-LAW SUED FOR PROPERTY

William F. Hastings of Eden Township Files Complaint Demanding Accounting.

William F. Hastings of Eden township has entered suit in the Superior Court against George J. Lynch, his brother-in-law, to recover two pieces of property decided over to the latter as security for the payment of certain monies and which the latter now refuses to return.

In his complaint Hastings states that his brother-in-law came to live with him on this side of the bay a few days after the San Francisco fire. The house being too small for the two families, Lynch is said to have offered to build an annex to it, advancing the money and materials for such an improvement and taking as security a conveyance to the property. Hastings now claims that he is prepared to pay Lynch for the money advanced by him, but that the latter refuses to accept the amount or to turn back the property. Furthermore, says Hastings, his brother-in-law will not even tell him what the amount expended was, nor give him any satisfaction whatever. In view of this arbitrary position Hastings asks that the property be returned to him upon the repayment of the advances and that Lynch be compelled to pay him $1000 for the trouble and inconvenience to which he has been put.

TRIES TO BURN WAY TO LIBERTY

CONCORD, Cal., Sept. 11.—Attempting to escape jail by setting fire to one corner of his cell, J. Cordini and a narrow escape from incarceration last night. Cordini had been arrested off battery, and was being held in the local jail for trial. He was discovered by officers, nearly suffocated, and hissing about the body and face from the heat of the flames, but was stoically watching the fire do its work.

He is now in the county jail at Martinez, and the charge of arson may be added to the other complaint against him.

MONITOR TO GO BACK INTO SERVICE

Wyoming, After Three Years of Idleness, Has Been Thoroughly Overhauled.

MADE ISLAND NAVY YARD, Sept. 11.—Preparations are being made to place the monitor Wyoming in commission on September 28. The Wyoming has been out of commission ever since she was disabled by a broken propeller shaft off Southern California three years ago. While at the navy yard the vessel has been thoroughly overhauled and equipped with all burning apparatus for experimental purposes.

The cruiser Colorado will sail from Bremerton on September 28 for Made Island and will remain here for some time, proceeding to Southern California to await the coming of the Pacific fleet. It is probable that the Colorado will not participate in the scheduled target practice.

ORDERS SHERIFF TO CAPTURE DAIRY

Judge Melvin Grants Writ of Assistance In Evicting Employees of Farm Which Is Subject of Suit.

Attorney Abe P. Leach this morning appeared before Judge Henry Melvin in the Superior Court in the case of John T. Davila, who is suing the E. H. Heath of Berkeley for a dissolution of partnership and an accounting of the property owned between them. Leach stated that the defendants in the action had resisted the efforts of E. S. Matthews, a temporary receiver appointed by the court, to take possession of the property in question, consisting of a milk ranch, several head of valuable cows and all of the equipment thereon. He introduced an affidavit signed by Matthews in which the latter stated that he had attempted to take charge of the property but had been restrained by a watchman in the employ of Heath, who not only threatened him with forcible eviction but is now sending the products of the dairy to Heath every day.

WOULD NOT RECOGNIZE.

Matthews declared that he exhibited both the order of the court and his own identification papers to the watchman, but that the latter refused to recognize their authority. Leach further declared to Judge Melvin that the four employees who were ordered discharged by the court are still in possession of the property and have been instructed to stay there, in spite of the orders of the court. Judge Melvin granted a writ of assistance in the case, empowering Leach to invoke the aid of Sheriff Barnett in taking possession of the property, pending the trial of the action.

CLAIMS OWNERSHIP.
Heath, who has maintained an establishment for the sale of milk in Berkeley for some time past, declares that he purchased the full control of the dairy property from Davila by the payment of sundry bills which the latter owed, after which he says he merely employed the latter as an assistant manager.

FIFTY-FIVE MEN HAVE ALREADY BEEN KILLED

Unions of New York Investigating Fatalities On the New Blackwell Island Bridge.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—Fifty-five men have been killed in building the new Blackwell Island bridge over the East River, according to the report of a committee of the Central Federation Union appointed to ascertain the fatalities in that work. The committee also found that fifteen workmen have suffered death in the Chelsea docks improvements. The union workmen who investigated the subject said that city inspectors tried to conceal the loss of life which the union men attribute to the employment of non-union men inexperienced in work at lofty heights and to the absence of proper precautions. The investigators declared that no life has been lost in building the new Manhattan bridge, where union labor is employed.

Her Rifle and Scattered Crowd.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., Sept. 11.—Armed with a rifle, Miss Annie Coplen of Gillette, twelve miles from here, fired so rapidly as she could into a group of men who were making a disturbance in front of her mother's home last night. As a result, Robert R. Young, operator of a cyanide plant at Gillette, was wounded in the head over the right eye and will not live. William Reed was shot in the left leg but his wound is not serious. Miss Coplen was brought to Cripple Creek. Her mother declares that the girl fought a battle with the men and won the victory. According to the mother's story, the men were shouting and singing and the girl stepped out upon the front step and requested them to disperse. One of the men the girl declares threatened her. She immediately seized a rifle and returned to do battle. Miss Coplen, being a dead shot, every bullet she fired found a mark. As soon as the two men fell the others fled. Half an hour later the young woman was arrested by a deputy sheriff. Young is married and has three children.

Housewives Glasses

Ladies greatly appreciate the Kryptok bifocal. They like its appearance, for it gives far-and-near vision without pieces pasted on and without the usual seams on the surface. When wearing Kryptoks they can see across the room watch for the tradesman's cart and read or sew in the same pair. They do not use two pairs of glasses—they do not put them on and off constantly, and Kryptoks for a person of 50 are as pretty and neat as those of a young lady of 20.
